

What does the u3a do?

The short answer is whatever you wish. We rely on our members to develop groups of common interest so that they may enjoy co-operation in learning more about their chosen activity and encourage new members to try something new. Help and guidance is given in establishing groups if required. Ashford, Wye & District currently has around 50 different groups as can be seen elsewhere on this website.