

I just want the opportunity to meet others, what do you do for me?

We have monthly meetings, which we call coffee mornings, these are currently held on the fourth Wednesday morning of each month, with the exception of December. There is an opportunity to meet up with people for a chat and tea/coffee followed by a talk by various speakers, usually with humorous or interesting subjects. You may attend these meetings for a couple of times before you commit to joining the u3a. Groups are also social meetings. Playing sports games can be quite intense, but there is lots of time for a chat while not playing
