

Is the u3a a political organisation?

No, there may be groups which are involved with politics, such as current affairs or the environmental group, A4T, but we do not get involved with Politics or support any political party. On a similar theme we have no bias towards or against any religious belief or ethnic origin, all are welcome as equals. Indeed, the more individual variety we have gives more opportunity for learning.